

Who will support my child at school?

Your child's class teacher is ultimately responsible for supporting your child's progress and development. Your child may receive additional support from the most appropriate person according to their needs (for further information 'What will the school do to support my child?')

These are some of the staff who may be involved in supporting your child in our school:

Teaching Assistants (TAs)

Learning Support Assistants (LSAs)

Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Coordinator and Inclusion Leader – Mrs Sian Milling

Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Assistant and Inclusion Officer- Mrs Sally Buckley

Pastoral and Safeguarding Manager - Mrs P Green

In school, we have staff that have been trained in, have experience of, or hold additional qualifications in the following:

- Understanding the needs of autistic children
- Training in supporting children with behavioural difficulties
- Experience of delivering physiotherapy programmes
- Training in supporting children with ADHD
- Supporting children experiencing Grief and Loss
- Restorative solutions focused training
- Counselling Skills
- ELKLAN Early Years qualification (language development)
- ELKLAN Primary Years qualification (language development)
- Advanced Certificate in Speech and Language Therapy
- Training in Supporting the Quiet Child
- Training in Speech, Language and Communication Needs
- Identifying and Teaching Children with Specific learning Difficulties
- Using Electronic Personal Education Plan (EPEP)
- Training in the TAC process (Team Around The Child)
- Training in using 'Signs of Safety' (Early Help Assessment)
- Positive handling training.
- Safeguarding Children Basic First Aid
- Paediatric First Aid Qualifications
- Specialist medical training according to needs
- Postgraduate certificate in understanding Autism
- ACES training
- EBSA training
- Supporting girls with autism.

